President WF Lown

Executive, minister, husband, father, scholar, advisor, and friend. All these words and many more could be used to describe the place our President holds in the hearts of all who know him.

Throughout the year President Lown is kept busy fulfilling all his many duties. He somehow manages to take care of the many executive duties of a college president, while also holding revival meetings, and attending classes at Kansas State. Not only these scholastic duties are performed by the President but he also succeeds in being a devoted father and loving husband to his wife, Nadine, and his two children, Linda and Carol. Nadine also joins him as a teacher of Decorum and Womens' Work at the college.

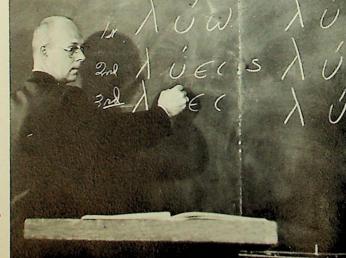

DEAN LACKEY

Dean James Lackey, our spiritual, academic leader, dedicates himself to the present growth of MBC.

Dean Lackey also teaches Greek.

Professor and Mrs. Carr

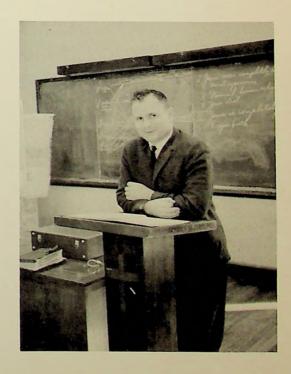

Professor James Carr teaches Bible and Christian Doctrine, heads the worship committee and preaches at Crestview Christian Church. Mrs. Carr is an instructor in Christian education.

The Johnsons

Professor Daniel T. Johnson teaches History and Psychology, and also serves as business manager. Professor and Mrs. Johnson proudly announced the arrival of Mark Randall to their family this year.

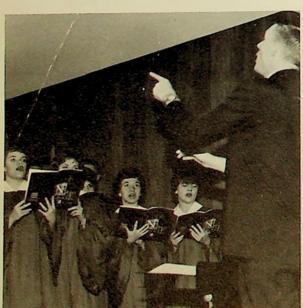

Ben Duerfeldt

Dean of Students,

Professor and

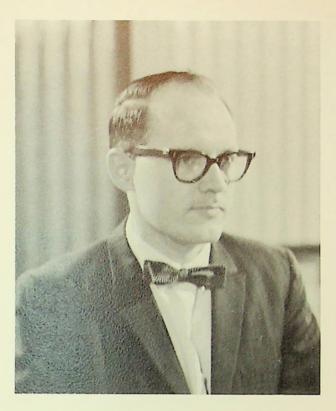

Choir Director.

BEN DUERFELDT

MBC uses the talents of Ben Duerfeldt in many different ways. Professor Duerfeldt, aside from his teaching duties, also has charge of the music department. Professor Duerfeldt is not only outstanding in both of these fields, but also fills his position as Dean of Students in a wonderful way. His shining personality and abounding understanding are great assets to the Christian spirit of MBC.

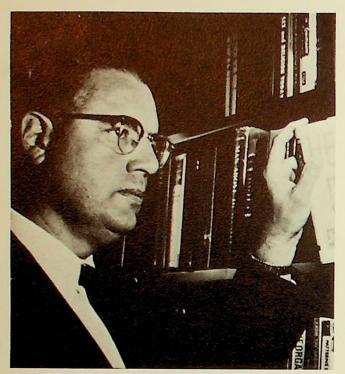

Wallace May

Professor May teaches Oral Communications and Radio Production at MBC. Outside of his regular classes, however, he is the man behind the scenes in the radio programs produced from Manhattan Bible College. He also spends many hours a month editing the "MBC News", each edition of which becomes more of a masterpiece than the one before.

DR Van Buren

Dr. Van Buren one of the top scholars in Literature and Bible of our day, strives to instill some of his knowledge in the lives of those who sit in his classroom.

Dr. Van Buren Teaches Bible, Literature, and Sociology at Manhattan Bible College All who have been under him in their college career will readily agree that he has an uncommon talent and ability to make the Bible come to life and live within the hearts of those who love its words.

KENT BATES

Manhattan Bible College was honored this year to have Mr. Kent Bates as part of our staff. Kent came the first semester for the purpose of delivering a series of lectures and this he did in a fine way. As second semester began we found him again in our midst. This time as the professor of "History of Christian Expansion". Kent Bates has been a missionary to Jhansi, India for the last 12 years. All the students and faculty of MBC consider it a very rare privilege to have this interesting devout man of God in our midst.

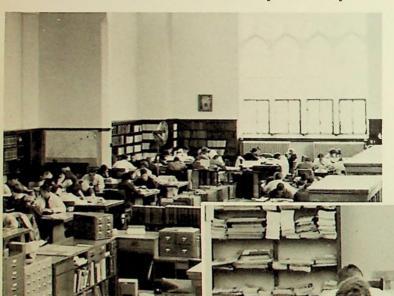

Three library facilities: Manhattan Bible College, Kansas State University, Manhattan Public Librarytotaling over 500,000 volumes, are all available to our students.

Martha Amlong, Chief Librarian, along with student help, keeps the MBC Library running efficiently.

THE C R E S H

The T. H. Johnson Memorial Lecture-ship, the ninth annual lectureship of this type, at Manhattan Bible College was held February 5,6,7. The lectures were planned and sponsored by the Alumni Association of the College. Dr. Joseph Dampier, of Emmanual School of Religion, Milligan College, Tennessee, was the guest speaker. The theme of his lectures was "The Restoration Movement Up To Date". MBC was host to many guests during these three days, and we feel assured that the lectureships were indeed enjoyed by all who attended.

MEMORJAL

Memorial Hall stands proudly at the side of the main building at MBC. This hall is the home of the girls attending MBC. All the girls find that this dormitory truly becomes their "home away from home." The girls work together to make it homey and pleasant to live in. Chris Hamon becomes the "mother" of a very large family as she faithfully fulfills her role as girl's dorm mother. Every day is a growing experience as each girl learns to live with others. Devotions, either as a group in prayer cells, or individually complete every day.

This is home for twenty-three men students of MBC.

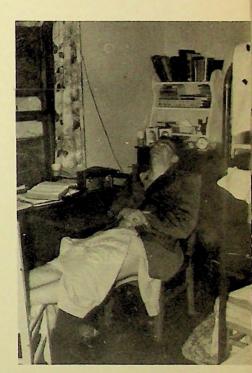

DEVOTIONS:

Bill Eaton works diligently on an assignment.

"Pop" Amlong, father of our librarian, Martha, inspired many a student with his cheerful spirit. Everyone was sorry when he passed away during this year, but each one is thankful for the years of spiritual guidance he has given.

100F

Each Friday evening students go out to the IOOF Home and have worship services and personal fellowship with the people there. This not only brings joy into the hearts of the residents of the Home, but also enriches the spiritual experiences of the student.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Music is a significant part of the life at MBC. The choir, under the direction of Ben Duerfeldt, provides inspirational music for the chapel services monthly and have also made several special appearances.

MABICO SINGERS

An enthusiastic new group this year is the Mabico Singers. This group of selected singers made its first appearance at the Johnson Memorial Lectureship.

ENSEMBLES

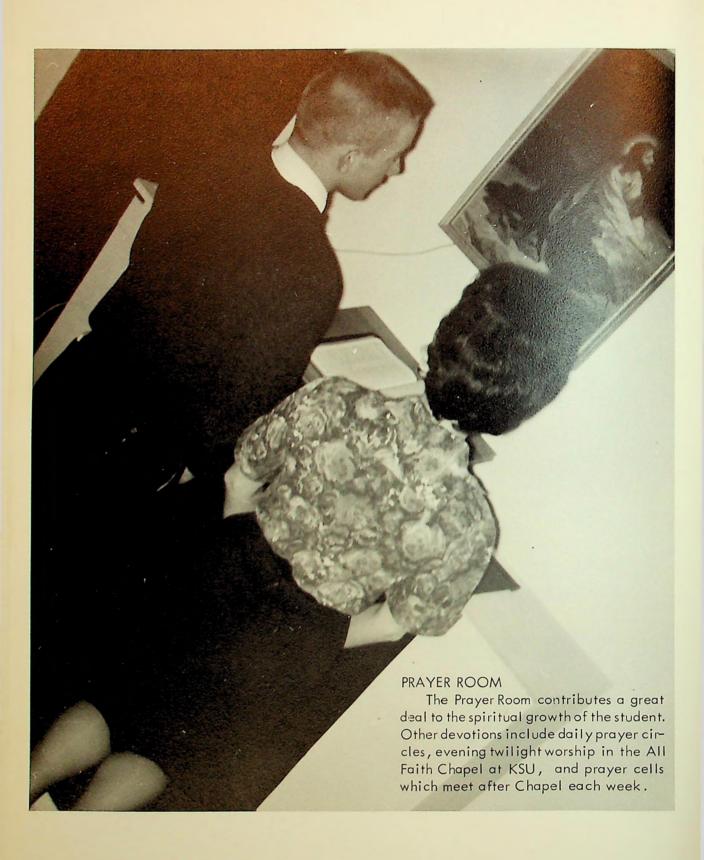

Sharing in the musical life of MBC several ensembles carry the message of Christ to churches for many miles around. Besides preaching the message of love through singing, they win new friends and enjoy fellowship of Christians.

Manhattan Bible College participates in inter-collegiate basketball. The Crusaders played a rugged schedule which included many of the other Bible colleges in our area. Coached by Dr. Charles R. Gresham the Big Blue again suffered a losing season but showed steady improvement in each game. The first five, made up of 4 freshmen and 1 junior, are looking forward to a more successful season next year. In all games the team showed the highest quality of Christian sportsmanship and are a credit to our school.

Dinning Facilities

Mrs. T. H. Johnson was delightfully surprised the evening of November 21, when she received the honor of having the new MBC dining hall dedicated to her. This hall, which is located only a half-block from the main building of MBC, is to become the student dining hall. The building was purchased through the generous donations of various faculty members and friends of the College. All the students of MBC and all who have seen this work progress are anxious for the time when we can begin using this new dining hall.
